EXPLORER IV 1961-1962
THE MODERN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
IN ORBIT

FOREWORD

In this yearbook, EXPLORER IV, the classes of June 1961 and January 1962 endeavor to present a picture of the modern junior high school as it takes its place in the great forward movement of the world today. We, the students still in the field of exploration, bravely reach out to seek and touch the stars on the new horizon. This is our record in word and picture, these are our dreams and hopes for a place in the stars, as we move outward and upward to find that we too are in orbit.

CLINTON PLACE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

STUDENT'S CODE

I am a young teenager embarking upon adulthood. In order to achieve maturity, I must fulfill my duty to my parents, teachers, friends, and to myself as an individual.

I must:

1. Dress appropriately, follow the rules of good posture, speech, and manners.
2. Respect all races and religions so that brotherhood and good will can be shared by all people.
3. Appreciate the value of public and private property in order to maintain the high standards of my school and community.
4. Practice the principles of democracy and the rules of my school because they are beneficial to me and my fellow classmates.

I will try to uphold with dignity and pride, the ideals and rules of my school and this code at all times.

Adopted by the Student Council
April 1958

HIGH SCHOOL

March 24, 1961

Dear Seniors:

Your teachers and I have provided for you those learning experiences essential to your growth. We have helped you identify your weaknesses and your strengths. The program of studies you have pursued in this junior high school has assisted you in the development of your individual talents and abilities.

It is the function of education in a democracy to do this. We are proud of the progress you have made. The future belongs to you. Use it wisely so that one day, as adult members of a democratic society, you may contribute your part to help build America and keep her strong and free.

My sincere good wishes go with you. I am proud to have been your principal.

Sincerely yours,

ALEXANDRA A. SOZIO, Principal

Congratulations to all the graduates for having successfully completed the requirements for graduation from Clinton Place Junior High School. You have been guided through the difficult early adolescent years by the devoted efforts of your teachers, your counselors and your parents.

We have provided you with a broad, individualized learning program, complete with experimental courses; a thorough personal and group guidance service; a varied club program; and a fine student government organization.

Your yearbook theme of "New Frontiers" is a very appropriate one. The preparations have been made; you are on the launching pad; the countdown has begun; and you will soon explore the new intellectual and social world of the high school.

Best wishes for a happy and successful journey.

To the New Frontiers, to the men and the women who have devoted their lives and their talents to the challenge of outer space and to all people in all spheres and branches of government, education, science and human relationships who are working toward greater goals of achievement, we the class of June 1961 and the class of January 1962 dedicate this our yearbook, EXPLORER IV.

Of this renaissance, this revival, this momentous trend toward new horizons we the young today, shall be the beneficiaries. In a small way we are now prepared to move into our places in this great movement and offer this yearbook as our tribute, our salute to the New Frontiers.

THE YOUNG ONES

By Elizabeth Schrader

Laughter bright and shining,
 Eyes that hold a happy light,
 A heart that's clear, and not repining,
 For some love that was'nt right,
 Hands so sure, that will not shirk,
 A tedious task or heavy work,
 Glowing love, and free of strife,
 Striving to run toward each tomorrow,
 Shunning all that speak of sorrow,
 For this is youth in its lovely prime,
 Touched not yet by grief or time.

We, the graduating class of June 1961, being of sound adolescent mind and body hereby submit this, our last will and testament as we take our forward step into the world of space.

To Miss Sozio: We leave our best wishes for the years to come.
To Mr. Coppola: A machine that will schedule all future classes.
To Mrs. Keith: Our sincerest gratitude for the help that you have given us in taking one of the biggest steps in our lives.
To Messrs McElroy, Abrams and Miss Holmes: Our sincerest gratitude for your assistance, patience, and understanding as our advisors:
To Mr. Weil and Mrs. Klayman: An illuminated record of the classes troubles.
To Mr. Adler: A file in which to keep all past, present, and future patrons in the yearbook.
To Mrs. Strome: An orderly yearbook staff.
To Mrs. Raymen: An 8 by 10 inch photo of the IBM World headquarter.
To Mr. Sosnow: A bunch of "ironheads."
To Mr. Schaeffer: A membership in the Elvis Presley Fan Club.
To Mr. Weil: A scholarship to a handwriting institute.
To Mr. Buyer: A place in the mythical cabinet of Nelson Rockefeller.
To Mr. Applebaum: A world map from which to teach his lessons.
To Mr. Rothbard: A Charles Atlas home gym.
To Miss Kramer: A bonus contract with the New York Yankees.
To Mr. Puckowitz: 100% membership in the C.P.A.
To Mr. Ertzberger: A Roman Toga.
To Mr. Maglio: A recording of the Marseillaise as sung by the "grads."
To Mr. Traynor: An inexhaustable supply of wood.
To Mr. Hunt: Our recognition for his charming personality.
To Mr. Mitzman: A box of steel wool.
To Mrs. Brown: A painting by deVinci.
To Mr. Nevola: A perfect rendition of the "Lord's Prayer."
To Mr. Musky: A golden baton.
To Mr. Kirkendall: 1,000,000 science notes.
To Mr. Scanlon: A perfectly clean cafeteria.
To Mr. King: A John Gnagy art set.
To Mr. Plasner: All rights and privileges to the fountain of youth for the years to come.
To Mrs. Wasserberger: Detailed outline of the Greek civilization.
To Mr. Rizzolo: A padded ring.
To Mr. McElroy: A guaranteed bottle of "Wash and Curl."
To Mr. Abrams: Two dabs of Bryllcream.
To Miss Appel and Miss Freidman: Copy of the jokebook entitled "Library Work is Fun?"
To Mrs. Hensley: A Red Cross kit.
To Mr. Murphy and his custodial staff: An electric vacuum cleaner.

RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS

By Elizabeth Schrader

Travel the world, laugh and be free,

Sail with the tide out to the sea,

Find a new life, love, and a song,

Shed a few tears, but not very long,

Mix them together, and this is the spice,

That flavors the broth of the dish we call life,

Each day at the end, kneel down and say,

Thank you, Dear God, for a wonderful day,

For life is a part of all things above,

And all of these things lead but to love.

We, the graduating class of January 1962, hereby draw up this our Last Will and Testament and leave without reservation those gifts and wishes to the following to have and to hold henceforth:

To Miss Sozio: Congratulations for a job well done and best wishes for future successes.

To Mr. Coppola: Three private secretaries.

To Mrs. Keith: A magic wand with which to clear her desk.

To Mrs. White and Mr. Fetten: Our deep appreciation for the help and understanding given us.

To Mr. Jackowski: An ivory chess set.

To Mrs. Rayman: An unlimited supply of chalk and erasers.

To Mr. Musky: A pair of soundproof earmuffs.

To Mr. Nevola: Military brushes and the will to win.

To Mrs. Strome: An electric typewriter for yearbook use.

To Mr. Adler: An endless supply of Patrons, Boosters, etc.

To Mr. Cleffi: A new set of cheers.

To Mr. Ertzberger: A copy of Ogden Nash's better jokes.

To Mr. Maglio: A British accent.

To Mr. Gilroy: A five year subscription to Holiday Magazine.

To Mrs. Hensly: Band-aides, a box of invisible ones.

To Mr. Plasner: A set of World Book Encyclopedia.

To Miss Appel and Miss Friedman: A five foot shelf of comic books.

To Mr. Traynor: Membership in the key guild.

To Mr. Applebaum: An automatic "stop and go" traffic light.

To our underclassmen: Our secret formula for success and achievement.
